

THOMAS SUTTON,

Attorney at Law,

OFFICE: At Residence, South Sixth Street.

Indiana, Penn'a, March 7 1887.

Supt. U. S. Mint,

Philadelphia - Pa.

Dear Sir:-

I enclose five dollar gold piece, pronounced here to be counterfeit.

If there is any gold in it will you be good enough to determine how much, and remit me its value, or let me know if it is entirely worthless. I presume you will destroy it, as it is calculated to deceive in its present form.

Yours Respt.

Thos. Sutton.

#4.3)

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 144

Thomas Sutton,
Attorney at Law,
Indiana, Penn'a,
March 7, 1887

Supt. U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir: -

I inclose five dollar gold piece, pronounced here to be counterfeit.

It there is any gold in it will you be good enough to determine how much, and remit me its value, or let me know if it is entirely worthless. I presume you will destroy it, as it is calculated to deceive in its present form.

Yours Respt.
Thos. Sutton.

[Noted at bottom:]

$4.31